

Your dining services are managed by Canteen and Thompson Hospitality

Canteen is owned by Compass Group, the world's largest food service company. Canteen is the only vending company in the United States with a food service program that serves clients in vending, dining and coffee service. Canteen offers fresh food and exclusive partnerships with popular food brands. www.cgnad.com

Thompson Hospitality, a strategic Compass Group partner, is the leading minority-owned food service company in the United States. Thompson Hospitality is a national leader in the hospitality industry, providing customers with unique dining experiences that are customized to their tastes, consistently high in quality and exciting. www.thompsonhospitality.com