

SPOTLIGHT RECIPE

TOFU SAAG

- Briefly pat the tofu dry with paper towels. Heat 1 1/2 teaspoons of oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add 1/2 of the tofu to the pan; cook 4 minutes or until golden, turning once. Drain the tofu on paper towels. Repeat the procedure with 1 1/2 teaspoons of the oil and the remaining tofu.
- Bring 2 inches of water to a boil in a large Dutch oven. Add the baby spinach and baby kale; cover and cook 4 minutes or until wilted, stirring occasionally. Drain well, reserving the cooking liquid. Place the spinach-kale mixture in a blender or food processor; blend until smooth, adding a tablespoon or 2 of the cooking liquid if needed.
- Combine the remaining 1 tablespoon of oil, 1 teaspoon cumin seeds and the next 4 ingredients (through the 3 chiles) in a large skillet over medium-high heat; cook 2 minutes or until the cumin turns golden brown, stirring frequently.
- Stir in the ginger and 1/4 teaspoon asafetida, if desired; cook 30 seconds, stirring constantly. Remove the cardamom pods and cloves with a slotted spoon; discard. Stir in the spinach-kale mixture; swirl 1/4 cup of the cooking liquid in a blender to extract the puree, and then add to a pan. Stir in the salt. Reduce the heat to medium; cook for 5 minutes.
- Place the tofu on top of the spinach-kale mixture; cover and cook for 5 minutes for a velvety texture, and then return to the pan and season to taste.
